Reasons to Train the Trainer

The best alternative for training personnel is occasionally hiring a third party organization in order to carry out the training and certification. There are however many good reasons to send a few of your personnel to Train the Trainer courses. Your company can benefit by maximizing your investment. Teaching an existing staff person to train other staff is less expensive as opposed to hiring somebody new. Businesses must avoid expecting individuals to take on trainer responsibilities on top of their existing responsibilities. The designated trainer should be relieved of some of their duties to be able to avoid trainer burnout.

Your business would be more empowered by developing its own internal training resources. It will help to increase the resources of the company and will encourage the workers to become more self-reliant. Your workers can well be more comfortable utilizing an in-house trainer when learning new skills. By internally training, new employees could trained fast and brought up to speed on the machine in case of staff turnover.
